

THE ASSOCIATED ALUMNI OF CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

AACHS Committees

The AACHS Board of Managers is organized into committees to advise and work on the key priorities of our organization, with the support and leadership of our Alumni Office staff. Individuals not on the Board of Managers, but who are interested in participating are welcome to join any committee that is open except the Executive Committee.

Art

Chair: Jordan Yuter, 243

The Art committee oversees the wide range of art held at Central and manages donations of art to the school. This term, the committee intends to supervise the rehang of art in the building, hopes to exhibit some of the school's art at a gallery, and also hopes to clean and restore several pieces over the course of the term.

Class Representatives

Chair: Rudy Cvetkovic, 239

The Class Representatives committee is charged with working closely with class representatives to ensure that alumni are continually engaged in the activities of the school and the AACHS and supporting their efforts around class-specific activities including reunions and fundraising efforts.

Programs and Communications

Chair: Michael Horwits, 251 and Kiana Nunn, 259

The Communications committee, working closely with staff, works to keep our membership engaged through the production of the Alumni Journal, various social media accounts, and our email program. The committee is also charged with identifying new ways to reach alumni through mass communications.

Capital Campaign

Chair: Stephen I. Kasloff, Esq., 228 and David R. Kahn, 220

The Capital Campaign works closely with our staff to raise funds for the AACHS, our efforts in support of the school, and our capital campaign, Leading the Way. This includes developing strategies to encourage board members to be full partners in the fundraising process, ensuring board members have the necessary tools, and identifying new strategies to support our efforts.

1836 Committee

Chair: Sherrell W. Ganges, 254

The 1836 Committee is a dedicated group of alumni who promote engagement and honor those who have given $1,836 or more to AACHS. By leveraging their energy and ideas, they help build community, celebrate leadership

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Chair: Hannah Baker, 274

The DEI committee works to support DEI efforts within the school community, to ensure that our board is representative of the school community.

Finance

Chair: Gene Marks, 241

The Finance committee is responsible for developing the organization's annual budget, which is presented for adoption by the full board at the annual reorganization meeting.

Information Management

Chair: Charles E. Washington, Jr., 249

The Information Management committee supports AACHS's data and website systems to ensure accuracy, security, and usability. This committee manages information strategy, maintains data integrity and privacy, and supports the digital infrastructure that keeps our alumni network connected.

Hall of Fame

Chair: George Mosee Jr., Esq., 232

The Hall of Fame committee is responsible for the Alumni Hall of Fame and the Faculty Hall of Fame, both of which honor extraordinary members of our Central High community. This includes managing the nominations process, vetting candidates, and organizing induction events.

Investment Committee

Chair: Steven Shapiro, D.O, 225

The Investment Committee oversees the management of investments under the control of the AACHS including various endowments and scholarship funds. The committee works closely with AACHS leadership, staff, investment advisors, and legal counsel to ensure that funds in our trust are carefully and appropriately managed.

Law Committee

Chair: David W. Birnbaum, Esq., 265

The Law Committee serves to advise the AACHS on legal matters including reviewing all contracts for the organization. It is also responsible for the maintenance of the AACHS by-laws.

Nominations and Elections

Chair: David R. Kahn, 220

The Nominations and Elections committee recruits (with assistance and support from all board members and staff), interviews and recommends individuals for election to the board or board offices. Their recommendations are considered by the full board in advance of the board election at the annual meeting each June.

Prizes and Scholarships

Chair: Cecil W. Johnson III, Ph.D, 244

The Prizes and Scholarships committee manages the many scholarships and awards offered to Central students, particularly at graduation. The committee works closely with our financial team, Board leadership, staff, and the Investment Committee to determine disbursements in line with law, internal policy, and donor intent.

School and Student Engagement

Chair: Karima Bouchenefa, 249

The School and Student Engagement committee will work to identify and support opportunities to bring alumni back to the school community to share their experiences with Central students, as well as identify other ways to support the school and student community.
